

Lincoln's Gettysburg Speech

FOURSCORE-AND-SEVEN years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

But, in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate—we cannot hallow—this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here have consecrated it, far above our power to add or to detract. The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

MOOSE MINSTREL IS WELL LIKED

Performance Given by Home Talent
Draws Good Crowd to Oliver.

A good crowd, considering the inclement weather, attended the Moose minstrel and cabaret at the Oliver theater Tuesday night by the local lodge. The company was composed entirely of local talent and was under the training of Robert Gerber of Chicago, who had been specially secured for that purpose.

The work of the company was good and some of the individual numbers showed splendid training. The solo by Mrs. J. M. Sheetz was received well by the audience as was the work of both Fred Knobel and Ernest Linsteadt. Misses Josephine Goller and Lucy Marshall, who sang a duet, were one of the features of the entertainment. Miss Nettie Mumaw sang a solo that was pretty and well done.

The principal parts were taken by the following:
Miss Eva Turner, Mrs. Verda Clymer, Mrs. N. G. Miller, Miss Aurelia Barrone, Miss Josephine Goller, Miss Mary Jangerle, Miss Elizabeth Spitz, Miss Nettie Mumaw, Miss Josie Smigelski, Mrs. Mable Thresh, Miss Belle Webster, Miss Nellie Whitman, Miss Lucy Marshall, Miss Martha Blinski, Miss Albina Bartoszek, Miss Lena Marks, Miss Rose Grzyzinski, Anna Housekeeper, A. Witt, A. F. Meaden, William Spitz, Ernest Linsteadt, Harry Seodens, B. Lemus, William Gleason, John Housekeeper, Clyde Lehman, Alvin Hagey, Fred Knobel, Edward Hepler.

After the intermission, George Morris amused with a black face monologue followed by a dancing novelty with the following as Scotch girls: Rubie Seitt, Thelma Radabaugh, Marie Hanck, Fura McCormick, Gaudine Hanck, Louise Futz, Josephine Smith, Jima Shuler, Shelby Mark, Genevieve Niven, Monica Horaka, Meldred Wolf, Lucille Brenner, Martha Pritzer.

Dugdale and Dugdale presented a very clever ragtime playing and singing act. Next came a nicely staged and prettily arranged Japanese singing and dancing number presented by the Ka Kallies. Solie Emery, Nellie Parkins, Gertrude Mumaw, Blanche Anders, Dorothy Miller, Athy Burdick, Thelma Gayman, Ruth Sollins, Esther Meaden, Francis Archambault, Pearl Miller, Bernice Hagman, Ruth Miller, Gertrude Lucke, Blanche Rogers, Mable Mell, Beatrice Marks, Evelyn Audrus, Thelma Rulsback, Anna Zangerle, Mildred Zimmerman, Gladys Radabaugh, Helen Olson.

Japanese: Harold Lawrence, Harold Robinson, John Kiddle, Cland Smith, Carl Wardlow, Theodore Elfer, Willard Housekeeper, George Gould, Frederick Stewart, Raymond Saubert, Robert Hubbard, Carl Meaden, Donald Hedrick, Clifford Smith, Veron Archambault, Fred Housekeeper, Walter Readka, Clarence McGill, Willard Northrup.

They were led by Louise Zielke, Minnie Smith, Elsa Zielke and Pauline Fogel.

William Gleason then demonstrated his ability as a blackface comedian, cleverly impersonating a southern minstrel boy.

Miss Laura Hagey held the attention with a splendid dramatic reading of "The Sign of the Cross," and Hagey and Hagey did a brother and sister act that was one of the hits of the show.

A Spanish number led by Josephine Smith, Lucille Brenner, Margaret Bishop and Laurie Radabaugh was capably presented by: Edith Rockwell, Pearl Hartman, Anna Cavanaugh, Sylvia Kline, Majorie Megan, Marie Zangerle, Aaron Smith, Wellington Dice, Leona DeHawter, Edna Buck, Anna Daxaline, Louise Pattison, Agnes Champagne, Geo. Morris, Lynn Staley.

Clown Act and Song.
A laughable clown song and dance was presented by Uta Reinhold and Ralph Dumke leading assisted by: Lena Kamer, Bernice Landgraf, Chantal Archambault, Lillian Shuler, Nellie Toek, Emma Beckerich, Ethel Nemeth, Joanna Koehler, Genevieve Miller, Thelma Kent, Marie Landgraf, Helen Osborn, Ruth Marks, Clara Nelsonson, Mary Holm, Eva Hustan, Evelyn Noyes, Violet Wardlow, Ha Shaw, Beatrice Jones, Ruth Morrell, Bessie Kent, Dorothy Colman, Homen Hubles, Walter Northrup, John Housekeeper, Theodore Chandler, Harry Clymes, Playeed Buck, Ray Aker, Marvin Stewart, Robert Jackson, Frank Hudson, Therman Barret, Wild Spittles, Vernon Radabaugh.

Bair, Frank and Gibbons, in a comedy act, "Just Nonsense," lived up to the title and worked like true professionals. The Stadmer quartet made a bright spot on the bill with their singing and talking. The performance closed with the entire company in a beautiful "America." The performance will be repeated tonight.

PRIMARY TEACHERS WILL BE ORGANIZED
Thirty New Members Are Received by the Local Teachers' Federation.

For the purpose of asking their cooperation in the remaining three concerts of the conservatory concert series, M. B. Griffith appeared before the members of the South Bend Teachers' federation at their meeting in the high school Tuesday afternoon. Other matters taken up by the federation were the closer organization of the primary teachers and the taking in of 30 new members in the general federation.

Miss Margaret Haley of Chicago, whose work for Chicago teachers is notable, will be brought to South Bend the week following Thanksgiving to organize the primary teachers. An effort may be made to have the three remaining numbers of the concert series after Mr. Cadman's recital Friday evening, in the high school auditorium. A committee was appointed to appear before the board of education to present the matter.

TWO ATTEMPTS MADE TO ENTER DUNLAP HOMES

ELKHART, Ind., Nov. 19.—That the residents of Dunlaps and vicinity have been threatened by burglars for several days is the opinion of Sheriff Leader. Two or more strange men are said to have been seen about the place frequently. Two recent attempts at burglary are charged to them.

One attempt was made to enter the home of Frank Kreider, two and one-half miles southwest of Dunlaps, at 7:30 Monday night, while Mr. Kreider was at church. However, the intruders were frightened away by Mrs. Kreider.

The home of Wilson Rood, near Dunlaps, was forced open Sunday after 4 o'clock Saturday morning, but nothing of value was taken. It is supposed the burglars were looking for $500 that had been received Friday as the proceeds of a sale.
